17. PLAYER IDENTIFICATION BRACELETS

On Registration night (June 5th, 2020) each team will be provided with a Player Identification Bracelet for each player on the official Team Roster. The coach will print on this Player Identification Bracelet the following information:

- ❑ The Player's 'book' or approved player ID card

The convener, having checked the above information, will either place the bracelet on the player's wrist or ask the coach to place the bracelet on the player's wrist (and trim off any excess). The bracelet is to remain on the player's wrist for each game in the tournament.

Any extra bracelets for players not at the first game but listed on the Roster, are to be retained by the Convener. If a Roster player, who was not at the first game to receive the bracelet, arrives for a subsequent game then he/she must go to the convener of the first game to receive his/her bracelet.

Only players with Player Identification bracelets can play in the age group and with the team they are registered.

The field convener removes the Player Identification bracelet when the player is ejected from a game (red card or two cautions) or accumulates 2 yellow (cautions) cards in the tournament. The bracelet will be replaced after the appropriate suspension has been served.
